

No .F.13 (3-60)-SE/GL-I/2011 (V-III)
Government of Tripura
Education (School) Department

Dated, Agartala, the 30 Dec, 2014.

Notification

Sub:- Introduction of Comprehensive and Continuous Evaluation (CCE) System at the Elementary Level of School Education from the Academic Year – 2015.

Elementary Education is the most crucial stage of education spanning the first eight years of schooling when the basic skills of reading and writing are acquired. Quality Education is, therefore, considered to be one of the major areas where the Government attaches importance. Consequently, there is need to take measures so that the system is capable of meeting its goals. The issue has also found place in the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009 (RTE Act, 2009). It is expected that qualitative up-gradation of teaching-learning process shall be possible in the event of implementation of the framework of Comprehensive and Continuous Education (CCE) formulated by the SCERT.

In accordance with the provisions of Section 29(2)(h) of the Right of Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009 it is hereby notified that the Comprehensive and Continuous Evaluation (CCE) System at the elementary level of School Education shall stand introduced w.e.f. 1st January, 2015 in all Govt. and Govt.-aided schools.

The District Education Officers are, therefore, required to follow up so as to sensitize all concerned for the sake of implementation of the CCE System from the 1st January, 2015.
